New Zealand is home to a range of climates, and here in Christchurch and throughout the Canterbury region we often experience some of the most extreme and harsh weather conditions in the country. Because of this, it is very important to maintain the integrity of your property's exterior with an exceptional exterior painting service. Picture Perfect Painting & Decorating can help you in choosing the right paint for your exterior substrate. Whether it's the deck to your outdoor entertainment area, roof, fence or simply the exterior of a building, we'll make sure your exterior paint finish will be able to endure the – four seasons in one day – weather conditions we often experience here in Christchurch. Much the same as interior painting, careful attention to preparation is the key to our high standard of workmanship. No matter the size of the project, our trade qualified exterior painters will deliver a picture perfect finish on your exterior painting project every time. WHAT WE DO What You Can Expect When You Choose Us When you choose us to take care of your exterior painting and decorating needs, you can expect all of the following as part of our service to you. A trade-qualified exterior painter with integrity and the right skills for your exterior painting project. Any exterior flooring stays protected from paint. All holes, cracks and rough surfaces are repaired with the appropriate filler materials. All surfaces to be painted are prepared professionally and any residues, contaminants or potential problems are removed. We ensure your property exterior gets the finish you desire using only high-quality and purpose-appropriate paint products. All our work is completed by the deadline we agree on in a professional and tidy manner. A high quality and durable, professional exterior painting finish that you can be proud to share with your friends and family.
