Hi, I'm Dennis E. Puleo from Miami, Florida. I earned a Master's in Environmental Science from the University of Miami. I specialize in helping researchers find the best journal for research paper submission. By assessing relevance, impact factor, and audience, I ensure that each paper is submitted to the most suitable journal, maximizing its visibility and influence. The best journal publication services for PhD students provide expert guidance in manuscript preparation, journal selection, and the peer review process. They help PhD candidates publish in high-impact journals, advancing their academic careers. Visit Website To Learn More: <https://journalpublishingservice.com/>
