A long term property investor since 2002, Glenn has great insight into the needs of property investors and the real value he can add by providing his property management service to his clients. Glenn has recently settled in the Hawke's Bay after spending 20 years living abroad. A keen mountain biker, snowboarder and beachgoer Glenn and his family chose to settle in the Hawke's Bay for the fabulous weather and outdoor lifestyle. Prior to property management, Glenn worked in technical advisory roles within the mining sector and is keenly aware of the importance of managing assets to optimise return on investment. This experience, combined with his nearly 15 years as a property investor, make him an excellent choice for your Hawke's Bay pro...
