Sugar is my dog's name. He has an extremely loving personality. He is super friendly with humans. He is a 4 month old maltese. He is also really really good with young kids including toddlers. He is in the initial phases of being socialized with other dogs and is doing quite well on that front too. He is super cuddly. He is available for meets with people who want to spend time with him (or set up a play date for their kids or dogs)
